

Michigan Class "D" Cross-Country Coaches Association Ryan Shay Memorial Scholarship

“Dark, unreasonable fear can twist and grind an individual... It is necessary to dig deep within oneself to discover that hidden grain of steel called will.” - Ryan Shay, 1997

The MCDCCA Ryan Shay Memorial scholarship was established in 2016 by the Michigan Class D Cross Country Coaches Association to honor the memory of Ryan Shay who passed away from sudden cardiac arrest on November 3, 2007, while competing in the 2007 United States Olympic Marathon Trials in New York City. Ryan grew up in the rural northern Michigan town of Central Lake, and graduated as a valedictorian from Central Lake High School in 1997. He earned numerous state and national awards and recognitions as a high school distance runner and won four consecutive MHSAA class D cross-country state championships during the scholastic cross-country seasons of 1994-1997. After graduating from high school, he ran for the University of Notre Dame where he became the most decorated athlete in Notre Dame's history. He became a professional world class runner after graduating, with honors, from the University of Notre Dame, and specialized in the marathon distance.

The MCDCCA Ryan Shay Memorial Scholarship is a way for the Michigan Class D Cross-Country Coaches Association to give back to the running community, to foster a passion for the sport, and to demonstrate a commitment to youth scholastic running programs while encouraging academic excellence in schools with a small student population. Through distribution of these scholarship funds, the association supports the sport of running, academic excellence, and development of healthy, productive, and disciplined lifestyles.

Michigan Class “D” Cross-Country Coaches Association Ryan Shay Memorial Scholarship Application Essay

The following excerpt is from Ryan's 1997 high school graduation commencement speech:

Although not everyone is going to win in life, everyone can set personal goals. Striving to reach the goal is an achievement in itself. Satisfaction comes from knowing you've given it your best shot. When you've done everything you know how to do and then don't master it, you can still feel successful. Then you will never have to look back and say, “If only I had tried!” Remember, “a loser is one who does not accomplish anything without even trying”. - Ryan Shay, 1997

Discover Ryan Shay by researching internet articles and You Tube videos and then describe what character attributes you may share in common with Ryan. What do you consider your biggest accomplishment, so far, no matter what anyone else thinks? What do you look back upon and say at least I tried?

OR

Tell us about a time or circumstance when you had to face an obstacle or fear that made it necessary to “dig deep within yourself to discover that grain of steel called will” to overcome it.
